Attempted Assassination in Japan. The Yeddo Herald of Sept. 4th says: A few days ago a well known official in Yeddo, Shimono Tatsongoro, Chief of the Fire Brigades, was executed by being transpierced by lances while lashed to a wooden cross. The cause of his execution was as follows: During the march of the army from Yeddo to Osaca, the castle Dzeze, in the Province of Go-shoo, was selected as one of the resting places of the Tycoon, in which he should pass the night. Graves, Inquisitive. From the New York Tribune. Mr. Bernard Graves, of Mosks, Iowa avors us with another catechism, whereo the gist is as follows: T. Are you in favor of the social equality of the two races? Yes or No. "II. Are you in favor of the political equality of the two races—in other words, are you in favor of the eligibility of ne roes to office, such as Governor, Legisla ture, Congress, Sheriff, &c? Yes or No. "III. Are you, under any circum-stance, in favor of permitting nigger children to occupy sents in our common schools with white children? Yes or No. " Now sir, I dare say that Thomas Jefferson, or old Ben. Franklin, or that the Declaration of Independence teaches the affirmative of either of these three propositions, and therefore do not see the propriety of your having so este paraded them before the public.
